

KNIGHTLY NEWS

FEBRUARY 26, 2021

KNOXVILLE CHRISTIAN WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

WHO KNEW? INTERACTIVE GAME SHOW

The Who Knew? Interactive Game Show is coming to Knoxville Christian during 4th period on March 9th. This event will bring teens an awareness to the hazards of all types of impaired driving. Permission slips must be turned in to participate.

EARLY BIRD STUDENT FEE

All new and re-enrolling students committing to Knoxville Christian School can take advantage of a $250 Early Bird Enrollment Pricing through THIS Sunday, February 28th, 2021. Don't miss your chance to enroll!

NHS INDUCTION

This past week, 25 high school students were honored during chapel as inductees into the National Honor Society. The National Honor Society inductees were carefully selected on the following criteria: Character, Service, Scholarship and Leadership. Congratulations to this year's National Honor Society members!

OPEN HOUSE ON MARCH 8TH

Do you know any families interested in Knoxville Christian for the 2021-'22 school year? The upcoming Open House on March 8th, from 5:30-7 PM, will serve as a great way for them to experience KCS by previewing all of our facilities and classrooms, while also having the opportunity to meet faculty and staff! Our K-5 Open House will be open to potential and current students. Our Open House for grades 6-12 will be for potential students. No RSVP required. For more info, visit www.kcsknights.org/admissions/visit-kcs.

FLORIDA COLLEGE REP COMING TO CAMPUS

A representative from Florida College will be available via a Zoom Conference in the HS Library during lunch on Tuesday, March 2nd. Interested students may bring their lunch to the library and eat that day.

VARSITY BOYS FINISH 4TH

After a hard-fought season, the Varsity Boys team finished in 4th place in the NACA Division 1 tournament.

@knoxvillechristianschool

@kcsknights

@kcsknights

DOWNLOAD
THE KCS APP

